Case No. 01-B-15472 (SMB)
Chapter 11

DESIGNATION OF RECORD AND STATEMENT OF ISSUES PRESENTED ON APPEAL OF THE DEBTOR BEST PAYPHONES, INC. TO THE UNITED STATES
DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK FROM A FINAL JUDGMENT OF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT OF THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

The Debtor, Best Payphone's Inc. ("Best"), by its undersigned attorneys, pursuant to Rule 8006 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Rule 8007-1 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules, hereby designates the record and issues presented on appeal to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York from the Bankruptcy Court's Final Judgment entered on the 20th day of March 2008, allowing the disputed claims of Manhattan Telecommunications Corporation ("MetTel") and from all interlocutory and post-judgment orders related to said Final Judgment.

Statement of Issues Presented on Appeal

1. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error when it allowed MetTel's claim for lost profits.
2. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in holding that the December 8, 2000 contract (the "2000 Natelco Agreement") between Best and North American Telecommunications Corporation ("Natelco") was properly assigned to MetTel.
3. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error when it determined that the 2000 Natelco Agreement could be assigned to MetTel without Best's authorization in accordance with the regulations of the Federal Communication Commission ("FCC") and the New York Public Service Commission ("NYPSC") regulations.

4. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in holding that the November 18, 1998 contract between Best and Natelco (the "1998 Natelco Agreement") was properly assigned to MetTel.

5. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in its determinations and holdings regarding the interest due to Best on its deposit under the 2000 Natelco Agreement.

6. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in its determinations and holdings regarding the interest and late charges owed by Best under the 2000 Natelco Agreement.

7. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in its dismissal of Best's claims for a Setoff based upon Best's entitlement to a reduction of the rates charged under the 2000 Natelco Agreement as not ripe.

8. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in holding that MetTel had rendered an enforceable account stated with respect to the 1998 Natelco Agreement.

9. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in not holding that MetTel committed an anticipatory breach/repudiation of the 2000 Natelco Agreement.

10. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in not holding that Best had no further obligations under the 2000 Natelco Agreement upon MetTel's anticipatory breach/repudiation.

11. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in holding that Best had an obligation to give notice and an opportunity to cure under the 2000 Natelco Agreement after MetTel's anticipatory breach/repudiation.

12. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in not finding that MetTel's anticipatory breach/repudiation was an unequivocal intention not to perform under the Natelco Agreement.

13. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in not holding that MetTel was equitably estopped from requiring Best to comply with the notice and cure provisions of the 2000 Natelco Agreement.

14. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in holding that damages for lost profits were fairly within the contemplation of Best and Natelco when they entered into the 2000 Natelco Agreement.

15. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in finding that damages for lost profits were fairly within the contemplation of Best and Natelco when they entered into the 2000 Natelco Agreement where the 2000 Natelco Agreement contained an express limitation on damages.

16. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in not holding that Best was entitled to terminate the 2000 Natelco Agreement pursuant to the express language of that agreement which provided that Best could terminate the 2000 Natelco Agreement based upon a material and adverse change in the terms of or rates for services.

17. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in not holding that the assignment of the 2000 Natelco Agreement to MetTel amounted to illegal "slamming" under Section 258 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 and under New York Public Service Law.

18. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error by not finding that the assignment of the 2000 Natelco Agreement to MetTel violated federal, state and local regulatory laws.

19. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in not holding that the FCC's approval of a limited waiver of customer authorization (the "FCC Order") gave Best a right to terminate the 2000 Natelco Agreement.

20. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in not holding that the NYPSC's approval of a limited waiver of customer authorization (the "NYPSC Order") gave Best a right to terminate the 2000 Natelco Agreement.

21. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in not finding that MetTel's claim for lost profits was speculative and that therefore loss profits were not recoverable.

22. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in not holding that MetTel was equitably estopped from making a claim for lost profits.

23. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in accepting MetTel's calculations of its alleged lost profits.

24. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in denying Best's previous motions for summary judgment.

25. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in granting, in whole or in part, MetTel's previous motions for summary judgment.

26. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in not holding that MetTel should be estopped from demanding more than $84,000 in lost profits.

27. Whether the Bankruptcy Court committed reversible error in denying Best's motion for reargument in its July 3, 2008 decision and order.

28. All issues identified in the Statement of Issues on Appeal filed by Best on June 8, 2007 (Docket No. 659), which is incorporated herein by reference and which is attached hereto

as Exhibit A.

Designation of Items to Be Included in the Record on Appeal

The Debtor-Appellant designates the following documents to be included in the Record on Appeal:

11/29/2006	604	(THIS IS A DUPLICATE ENTRY OF DOCUMENT NO. 603) Memorandum Endorsed Order signed on 11/29/2006: "The Court declines to sign this Order to Show Cause, which would have the effect of staying the trial on MetTel's claim for lost profits. The legal arguments directed at that claim were either made and considered at the earlier hearing or not made. In any event, they can be made, in post-trial briefing, after the lost profits trial. These arguments relating to the withdrawal of the migration claims are not the subject of the upcoming trial. The Debtor can proceed by ordinary motion. Accordingly, the trial on the lost profits claim will proceed on December 4, 2006."
